FOREWORD

For us, the class of '59, Stoneham High School has been our world within a world. In our world of education, sports, and activities we are the citizens, and the administration, faculty, and coaching staffs are our leaders. Here we find character, learning, and sportsmanship stressed just as they are in the outside world. This scholastic world has prepared us well to assume our responsibilities in the everyday world.

We sincerely hope that this year's Torch is an accurate representation of our world within a world and that in the years to come it will help you recall many pleasant memories of the activities in which you participated and the lessons which you learned at Stoneham High School.

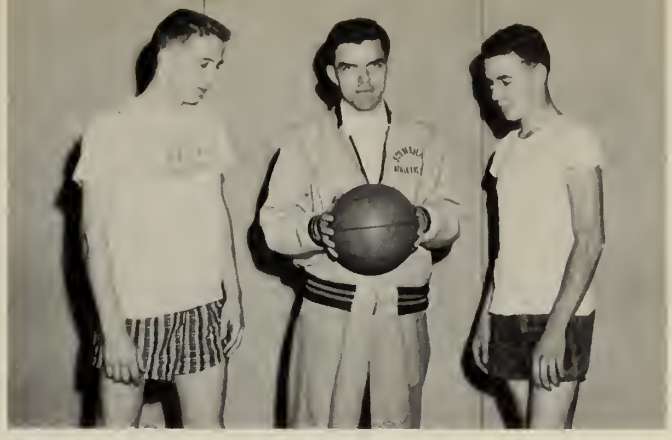
DEDICATED TO MR. BERNARD SMITH

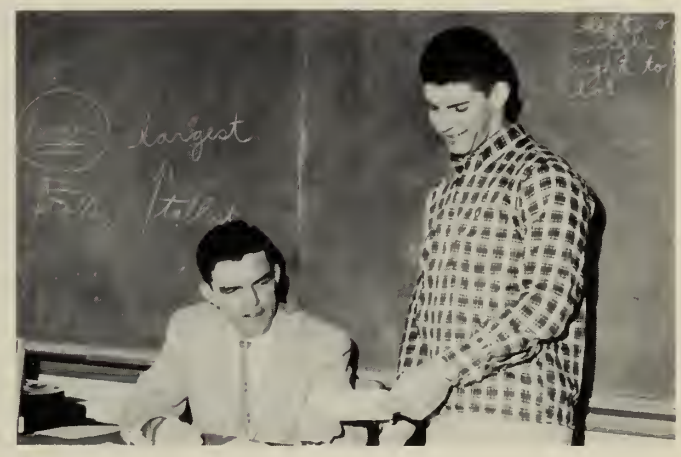
Unselfish dedicatian to the needs af his students is a vital characteristic of any outstanding teacher, a quality which Mr. Bernard Smith passesses in abundance. He has given many af us, from the saphamare year on, a substantial backgraund in English, which will be vitally necessary in whatever field of endeavar we chaose. His teachings, nat anly in English, but in character will always be firmly etched on aur minds as we enter the autside warld.

As basketball coach, he has praduced teams exemplifying fair play and gaad spartsmanship. As advisar far the "Torch", he has given very generausly af his time and energy and has been primarily respansible far its publicatian and success in recent years.

Far all these reasons we very proudly dedicate the 1959 TORCH ta Mr. Bernard Smith.



In his role as basketball coach Mr. Smith gives Billy Flahive and Johnnie Halligan some pointers.



Mr. Smith confers with Victor Klamans concerning an English composition.

Mr. Smith takes time out to watch the boys perfect their skills.

THE WORLD OF OUR FACULTY

Our faculty is the axis on which our scholastic world revolves. From them we have acquired both experience and knowledge. Their unselfish devotion to duty has prepared us well for the future. They have given freely of their time to supervise and have encouraged us in all our activities and have gladly helped us reach our educational objectives. Their counsel has been invaluable as we progressed through our school years.

As we leave our world of sports, activities, and the classroom, we go forth with great respect and sincere admiration for the faculty of S. H. S. To them we shall always be grateful.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent Michael Scarpitta, Ph.D., Vice-Principal Wendell Horton, and Principal William Nadeau discuss ways and means af improving school administration.

WHAT IS A SENIOR....

A senior, busy, fun-loving, and yet still serious, is the oldest and most envied student in S.H.S. He hos a definite opinion on everything from pizzo to poetry, ond will proceed to elaborote without ony persuosion whotever.

We moy find a senior working at the Star or corousing in the corridors ot the most peculior times. Wherever you find one, you find his hilarious jokes, his momentous decisions, and his impeccable taste.

A senior likes open houses, hotrods, mad breokfasts, twerp weeks, beach parties, and other class octivities. His dislikes run the gamut from examinations and studying to the inevitable report card.

Our athletic teams are on important part of a senior's life. It makes no difference if he is o participont or o spectotor, o senior supports his school. A feeling of sorrow at the last football gome or last everything is experienced by a senior at these activities.

When June comes around, the glory and doys of o senior in high school will be over. He will now go out into the world to follow his own decided paths in life. Graduation will bring sodness to the senior, but at the same time he will be eager to stort his new life for which he has been troined so well ot S.H.S. A Senior will never forget his happy high school years as he goes forth to serve.

THE WORLD OF SPORTS

Our world of sports prepares us for the future, for in our athletic program we learn how to get along with others and to make the best of our physical abilities. This world is one of the most vital parts of our scholastic lives.

The true value of athletics is not measured by the number of games won. Win or lose, the student body is proud of those who participate in the athletic contests because the players always exemplify the noble ideals of good sportsmanship and fair play.

SPORTS

Caach Millett

Stoneham finished fifth in league play, just two points out of third place. This was a noteworthy achievement, since the first three teams in the G.B.I. League went on to place first, second, and third in the state tournament.

There were no individual stars on this veteran club, which fought back from a four-goal deficit only to lose 5-3 to Melrose.

The team won the Doc Gordon Good Sportsmanship trophy for the fifth time in the seven years it has been awarded.

Kenny Catalda makes a scintillating save.

Bab Antanucci scares against Medford.

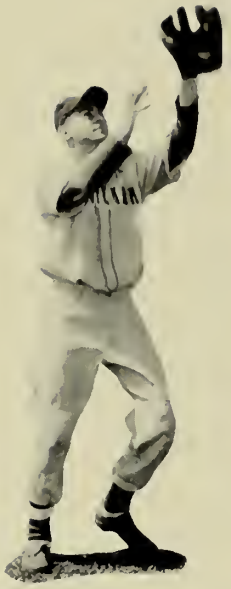
Coach Ryan

R. Morris, R. French, and D. Baudreau warm up in an early season workaut.

Coach Ryan's squad lacked the overall strength so necessary for a successful season. Individuals who stood out were Donald Boudreau in the 880, John Toce in the mile, Thomas Summons in the dashes, and Steve Asgeirsson, Steve Camuso, and Frank Del Tergo in the shotput.

D. Cleveland, P. Merrithew, R. Lean, and J. Zannidachis line up far a practice sprint.



Phil Peltan was an excellent utility man.

Kenny Cataldo was quite a ball hawk.

Mike Boyle fires a strike.

BASEBALL

Sophomores combined with a few seniors to form a smooth fielding team, but the club failed to hit with any authority. Steve Camuso was a standout at bat, while Kenny Cataldo made many fine fielding plays in the outfield. Ace of the pitching staff was Mike Boyle.

Even though inexperienced, this battling ball club managed to win its share of games. Prospects for next season are bright.

Steve Camusa swings and misses.

Standing: P. Dubee, N. Flor, L. Brodbury, J. Asgeirsson, E. Forbes, A. French, L. Breen.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Colorful routines were presented by each class before the games. The seniors' routine consisted of the songs they had sung in their sophomore and junior years and the traditional senior farewell. Laughs were provided by ten senior boys who acted as cheerleaders. Their efforts inspired the senior girls to victory over the juniors.

VARSITY FIELD HOCKEY

Highlighting the season was a game with Waynefleet, a private school in Maine. The girls traveled to Stoneham by bus and visited classes until it was time for the game. Waynefleet was victorious in both games. After the game refreshments were enjoyed by both teams.

The team won one, tied two, and lost two. Each game was a spirited encounter as our girls, led by co-captains Barbara Johnson and Pat Ford, battled for victory. Miss Dorothy Demarjian spent many hours coaching the team, and our close games were an indication that we had learned much in our practice sessions.

Our jayvee team defeated Malden. This group is looking forward to next season with much enthusiasm.

Cooch Demarjion demonstrotes the proper grip for S. LaPointe, J. Burke, B. Johnson, N. Flor, P. Ford, J. Turner, ond E. Forbes.

THE WORLD OF ACTIVITIES

This world is the one in which we find the most enjoyment. For here we can express ourselves and learn to work with others to achieve our goals. Some of us are fortunate enough to display our dramatic ability as actors and actresses in the Senior Play while others participate in the Winter Carnival as stage performers or as members of the Royal Court. No matter what our abilities are, there is a club or group wherein we can utilize our talents. Whatever our part may be, the important thing is that we learn the value of cooperation, harmony, and good fellowship, those qualities so necessary in our future.

brightly with fond recollections.

One of the most challenging tasks a group of seniors can undertake is the recording of a multitude of memories for their classmates. No one can understand the problems associated with the production of a yearbook until he has had a part in it. The Torch requires much hard work and extra time, but our efforts will be rewarded if you, the class of '59, find some enjoyment in this book, both now and in the future.

MUSIC

Catherine Phelan, Paul O'Brien, and Alice French represented S. H. S. at the All-State Music Festival.

Our musical groups have prominent parts in the Winter Carnival. No one who attended this year's carnival will soon forget the professional job done by Mr. Todaro's dance band. The Glee Club was one of the highlights of the night with a variety of songs which delighted both young and old.

Outstanding members are rewarded for their efforts by being selected to participate in the All-State Music Festival. Catherine Phelan, Paul O'Brien, and Alice French represented our school this year.

Parents and members of the student body eagerly look forward to the annual Spring Concert. On this occasion the auditorium is filled to capacity as the different musical organizations at Stoneham High School perform under the direction of Mrs. Gilda Wipperman, Mr. Alfred Todaro, and Mr. Rolland Topley. The varied program presented by the Glee Club, Dance Band, Octet, Band, and Orchestra never fails to entertain those in attendance.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Our athletic program owes much of its success to the A. A. and its adviser, Mr. DeTeso. Because of the efforts of this group, transportation for the teams is assured. The A. A. also pays for the hockey team's ice time and the officials at all the athletic contests.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Members represent their homerooms in matters concerning the student body. The council's main objective is to provide students with the opportunity to take an active part in school government. Assembly programs, class elections, the Carnival Ball, and drives for civic organizations are supervised by the council. In effect this group is a small democracy working for the benefit of the school and the community.

STUDENT EXCHANGE DAY

STUDENT GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVE

Participating schools in this program select five students to visit a school in a community with a different type of government from their own. The purpose of this is to enable city students to learn about town government and vice versa. This year our members exchanged visits with students from Lynn Classical High School.

John Halligan was elected by the students to represent the school at the State House on Student Government Day. Qualified pupils from each high school serve as members of the legislative, judicial and executive branches of the state government.

John Halligan prepares his speech.

BUSINESS CLUB

Erika Meisl is an artist of considerable ability.

EXCHANGE STUDENT

Erika Meisl, this year's foreign exchange student, came to us from Berlin, Germany. She soon became one of us as she regularly attended our athletic contests, sang in the Glee Club, and participated in the Winter Carnival. Erika has our best wishes as we bid her "Auf Wiedersehen".

Toby Mayman represented Stoneman High School at Girls' State, with Carol Clarke as the alternate. Toby further distinguished herself by being elected governor.

The Boys' State Representatives met at the University of Massachusetts, where they were given an opportunity to practice the fundamentals of democratic government.

GIRLS AND BOYS STATE REPRESENTATIVES

"We offer this revolver in evidence."

Mr. Stott listens intently to a reoding at the tryouts.

Talented members of the senior class presented the sparkling comedy, "The Night of January 16th", under the capable direction of Mr. Richard Stott. This year's play used the courtroom as its setting. At the trial the two lawyers, James Forbes and Paul O'Brien, pleaded their cases so effectively that the jurors, who were picked from the audience, rendered a different verdict at each performance. To the members of the cast and Mr. Stott, the senior class extends its heartiest thanks.

"So if someone had his own key, you wouldn't see him come in."

Close the curtain!
